

Infusion Collect

Automatic Email Reminders for your Customers - quicker than you can call them!

Why spend hours calling and chasing customers with overdue balances. Automate the process with Infusion Collect.

Infusion Collect will automatically contact clients with an email reminder either prior to the invoice being due or at a set number of days after the invoice was due. You can customise the invoice, and also specify which customers receive reminders. Each morning you will receive an email list of the days reminders which you can approve or place on hold.

With up to 7 email templates you can customise the process
